Being strategic involves identifying your current status; an awareness of others in your field; determining potential publishing outlets and ensuring the visibility and discoverability of your publications.

This presentation will demonstrate tools and services that can be used to optimise your efforts across the research cycle.

PRESENTED BY:
Bernadette Stephens

Bernadette is an Outreach Librarian who works with the Faculty to build a greater awareness of the services that the Library can offer to support teaching and research endeavours.

WHEN:
Wednesday 10 April
12:30pm

WHERE:
Building: 67
Room: 302